

A Conference for Community and Voluntary Organisations

Survive and thrive through troubled times

When: 28 April

Where: Sligo City Hotel, Quay Street, Sligo

Time: 9.30am - 4.15pm.

Registration from 9:00am

The Wheel is hosting this conference to help equip you and your organisation with the latest information and thinking on the key issues facing the community and voluntary sector.

It will be of benefit to anyone associated with community and voluntary organisations.

Come and hear leading experts explore:

The Charities Act and the New Regulatory Framework

Learn how Charities Regulation will affect your organisation

Good Governance

See why good governance is the key to success and sustainability

Surviving the Recession

Hear strategies to help your organisation make it through the tough times

Fundraising - Innovation, Development and Growth

Learn to assess the health of your organisation and foster innovation and growth

Online Social Media - Powerful and Effective Communication

See how powerful new online tools can help you communicate your message more effectively

Finding it Online: The Wheel's family of websites

See all the services available online from The Wheel and where to find what you need

Registration Fee

This briefing is free to members of The Wheel, but registration is essential. Members, to register your place, simply email us register@wheel.ie.

People who are not members of The Wheel must register online. There is a fee of 30 euro for this event which is refundable on purchasing membership in 2009